Hey BEARCATS! DON’T YOU WANT YOUR SCHOOL RETOOLED?

The Home Depot
“Retool Your School Project”

“The Home Depot is overjoyed to bring this essential and successful program back for a third year. We know how valuable our nation’s Historically Black Colleges and Universities are, and how much they have contributed to our country’s growth in so many ways. What could be more worthwhile than helping preserve and improve some of America’s most historic campuses and landmarks?”

Vote for major and minor projects proposed by and for

Rust College.

• Major Project
Rust College proposes to refurbish bathrooms in a women’s dormitory with energy-efficient and environmentally friendly products.

• Minor Project
Rust College intends to improve the aesthetic beauty the west entrance of the campus, and install an emergency call box to enhance safety.

• Campus Pride
Rust College plans to install barrier-free automatic access doors to three buildings on campus to complete our ADA compliance.

11:00 AM: Dedication of the Sheela Bhagat Technology Classroom, McCarty-Varnell Building, (BCS) Rm 203

The Sheela Bhagat Technology Classroom was made possible by a large donation from Mrs. Bhagat’s daughter and son-in-law. The purpose is to provide the Division of Business students access to state of the art equipment, and to have information presented in a way that is interactive for all students. This classroom will allow the faculty to use software designed to enhance their courses. It is expected that students will enjoy this environment because it allows them more interaction which leads to better understanding.

Since 1980, Mrs. Sheela Bhagat has been teaching accounting and finance courses at Rust College. She has twice received the Fulbright-Hays Study Abroad Seminar award, once to Israel and Egypt for seven weeks in 1999, and the second time to South Africa in 2004 to study their economics and accounting systems. Mrs. Bhagat has attended and participated in several American Accounting Associations Annual Meetings, as presenter, or moderator. She and her husband have one child, a daughter, who is married and lives in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania with her husband and their three children.

Rust Men’s Basketball Senior Night — Tiger/Bearcat Night Welcomes Friends, Alumni

Several alumni, students, and friends cheered on the Bearcats as they took on the Dragons of the Virginia University at Lynchburg, Monday, February 20 for Tiger/Bearcat Night, which was also the men’s basketball team’s final home game of the season.

The Bearcats claimed victory against the Dragons with a score of 97 to 104. High scorers for the Bearcats were senior guards William Montgomery (20), Markel Wilson (19), and sophomore forward Justycze Clark (19). Montgomery also marked a milestone by making his 500th career assist of his tenure as a Bearcat. Wilson also helped the Bearcats with 14 rebounds, and Jordan Seals placed 14 points on the board.

Alumni of Rust and Mississippi Industrial College enjoyed the basketball festivities as well as Hospitality Room, mingling with students, faculty and staff of the College.

Sophomore forward Justycze Clark takes flight as he goes in for a lay-up against the Virginia University at Lynchburg Dragons Monday.

Alumni and friends of Rust College and Mississippi Industrial College joined students, faculty and staff for the Tiger/Bearcat Night, Monday, February 20.
