Celebrating 147 Years of Quality Education and Service
Greetings Alumni and Friends!

As we embark upon our 147th Founders’ Weekend, our hearts are filled with joy and anticipation. We stand today, even stronger than in the past, on the legacy and shoulders of those who came many years before us to make Rust College what it is today.

Rust College is an institution designed to acquaint us and our future students with cultural, moral, and spiritual values. Rust College, and all of our small private colleges, continue to be challenged. Rust has been fortunate in this area to have strong support of our alumni, friends, and sponsoring church to meet these challenges. We celebrate this continuing support and express our thanks. The pages that follow this note of thanks will give an update on our stewardship of the College since our last Sentinel. The campus is bubbling with plans and excitement as we prepare to welcome you back to Rust College for the 147th Founders’ Weekend activities scheduled for November 8-10, 2013.

We’ll see you on the Hill soon!

With a servant’s heart for Rust College,

Dr. David L. Beckley, President
Class of 1967
Celebrating 147 Years of Service and Education

Students, faculty, staff, alumni and friends will celebrate the 147th Founders’ anniversary of Rust College and the 108th Commemoration of the Founding of Mississippi Industrial College November 8-10, 2013.

The festivities will begin Sunday, November 3rd at Asbury United Methodist Church with the Bell Ringing Ceremony. The Bell Ringing Ceremony will be held at 9:30 a.m., before worship service, to pay homage to the founders of Rust College and to celebrate the institution’s 147 years of existence. Led by Rust College President and First Lady Drs. David L. and Gemma Beckley, faculty and staff members, students, and church members will ring the bell at Asbury United Methodist Church 147 times to commemorate each year of Rust College’s service to the community.

The Golden and Silver Anniversary classes of Rust College and Mississippi Industrial College – Classes of 1963 and 1988 – will be honored during the Alumni and Friends Awards Banquet on Friday evening, November 8th at 6:00 p.m. in Shaw Cafeteria. Each class member will be presented a commemorative diploma recognizing their particular class. Awards will be presented to donors who have given financial gifts to the College during fiscal year 2012-2013.

The crowning of Miss Rust College 2013-2014 will take place following the banquet during the Coronation and Ball at 8:30 p.m. Friday evening. Miss Andrea D. Cooper, a senior, majoring in English Education, hails from East Saint Louis, Illinois. She is the daughter of Kenneth D. Cooper, Sr. and Dinnia Cooper. Her favorite pastime is spending time with family and friends, laughing and talking. Her campus organizations and affiliations include: Chief of Staff of the Student Government Association, Alpha Kappa Mu National Honor Society, Pre-Alumni Council, Ebone’ Fashion Club, Resident Assistant, and Miss Senior Class.

Come out and enjoy a parade on Saturday morning, November 9. The annual Founders’ Day Parade, a Rust College and Holly Springs tradition, will welcome bands, cheer and dance teams, local and regional churches, schools and organizations to strut their stuff around the Holly Springs Square. The parade will begin promptly at 11:00 a.m. The annual Concert of Bands will follow the parade at 1:30 p.m. in the McMillan Multi-Purpose Center.

The Bearcats and Lady Bearcats will battle it out on the hardwood during the Homecoming basketball game Saturday night. They will tip-off against the Magicians and Lady Magicians of LeMoyne-Owen College at 5:30 p.m. in the McMillan Multi-Purpose Center. This long-standing rivalry will bring in a capacity crowd, so it is suggested that patrons get there early!

Rust College will welcome alumnus and Grammy-nominated artist Anita Ward Richardson, ‘78, as keynote speaker during the 147th Founders’ Convocation.

Anita skyrocketed to the top of the charts at age 22 with disco hit “Ring My Bell”. Born in Memphis, Tennessee, the oldest of five children, Anita says singing came naturally to her. She grew up singing in her local church, as well as various other churches.

While attending Rust College, Anita was a member of the Rust College A’Cappella Choir, where she quickly became a featured vocalist. Her first professional recording was with the choir as they accompanied opera singer Leontyne Price.

It was also at Rust College, while auditioning for the musical “Godspell”, that Anita’s voice captured the attention of administrator Chuck Holmes. Holmes signed her to a management contract and Anita recorded a demo, which Holmes shopped to various contacts. Anita gained the attention of Frederick Knight, then owner of Juana Records. Knight signed Anita and agreed to produce an entire album. From this album, “Ring My Bell” was born.

With the success of “Ring My Bell”, Anita went on extensive tours in the United States and Europe, including Spain, Germany, and the Netherlands. She has also toured and performed in Central and South America, Mexico and Brazil. Her television appearances include: “The Midnight Special”, “The Merv Griffin Show,” “American Bandstand”, and “Top of the Pop in England”.

During the 1990s, Anita chose to resume teaching, a career she began prior to her worldwide hit. She says although she is a full-time wife and mother, music has never ceased to be a part of her life. Anita’s hit “Ring My Bell” is still popular around the world. It was featured on Wii’s Gameplay “Just Dance (November 2009), and has been featured on the soundtracks of 14 movies over the past three decades; as recently as 2010 in “The Book of Eli”.

Allstate and the Tom Joyner Foundation Partnering to Raise $150,000 for Historically Black Colleges and Universities

Show your school pride by getting a quote now and Allstate will donate $10 to the Tom Joyner Foundation to support students at HBCUs. Then vote to help your favorite HBCU win a $50,000 donation from Allstate.

Allstate and the Tom Joyner Foundation are asking alumni, students and supporters of Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs) across the country to do their part to raise scholarship funds as part of the fifth annual Allstate Quotes for Education program.

For every person who receives an insurance quote from a participating Allstate agent and mentions Quotes for Education between August 1 and November 30, 2013, Allstate will donate $10, up to a total donation of $150,000. The funds will be donated to The Tom Joyner Foundation and earmarked for general scholarship funds to assist students attending HBCUs.

For the third year, participants in this program will also have a chance to vote for the HBCU of their choice to receive an additional $50,000 donation for scholarships.

"We know that cuts to student loan programs over the past few years are hurting students all over the country, but these cuts are particularly detrimental to students attending HBCUs," said Cheryl Harris, senior vice president at Allstate. "Allstate and The Tom Joyner Foundation are passionate about helping these students pursue their dreams as we continue to support programs like Quotes for Education."

"HBCUs are part of my DNA, and my foundation is dedicated to helping students complete their college degrees," said Tom Joyner, chairman and founder of the 15-year-old foundation. "Every dollar raised will go a long way to invest in these students' dreams – and careers."

Rust College #4 in Social Mobility says Washington Monthly 2013 College Guide

Rust College was recently recognized with a #4 ranking in the Social Mobility category for Liberal Arts Colleges in the Washington Monthly’s 2013 College Guide.

According to the magazine, the Social Mobility score indicates the percentage of lower income students who graduate. Researchers at the magazine say they have data which tells them the percentage of a school’s students on Pell Grants, “which is a good measure of a school’s commitment to educating lower income kids.”

2012-2013 Fiscal Year Completed in Good Standing

Rust College completed Fiscal Year 2012-2013 with solid financial results for the period, according to Mr. Don Manning-Miller, Vice President for Finance for Rust College.

“As always our operating budget for the year was balanced. The annual independent CPA audit was unqualified with no questioned costs. The audited statements indicated slightly over $300,000 in the black from operations, and thanks to a strong market for the year, a $3.5 million positive Change in Total Net Assets. These results for our most recent fiscal year accord with independent studies completed by Wesley Peachtree Group and Forbes Magazine, which showed Rust College to be in the top tier of HBCUs and other private four year colleges in the nation,” Manning-Miller said.
Social Science Professor Publishes First Solo Book

_African American Life and Culture in Orange Mound: Case Study of a Black Community in Memphis, Tennessee, 1890-1980_ is the first book Dr. Charles Williams, ’69, has written without collaboration. He has co-authored several publications prior to the August 2013 publication of his new work.

Dr. Williams says the research for his book was done as part of his dissertation while pursuing his Ph.D. from the University of Illinois in Champaign-Urbana, Illinois in 1981. The book explores the life and community of African Americans in the Orange Mound community of Memphis, Tennessee from the late 1800s to the late 1900s, ending in 1980.

“It's a critical book because, basically, this is a very historical community,” Dr. Williams said. “There are just only a few communities that were started from day one for black people, that they built themselves. This community was started from day one, built primarily for blacks, kind of like a planned community. The only people living there were black people (in 1890). Not only that, the time period when it came into being, it was also a community where people took pride in ownership. It was one of the few places in the South that a black person could buy a piece of land and build a house on it and call it their own. That was their community. So in terms of home ownership… there's a lot of pride in that community. Church, schools, a very close-knit community that's been intact through all these many years. Now it's sort of falling on hard times because a lot of the original members, elderly people died off and it's leading to a lot of young transients, young families moving in and they don't understand the history of the community.”

Dr. Williams says he is currently working on a second book which will explore the community of Binghampton, also located in the City of Memphis. _African American Life and Culture in Orange Mound: Case Study of a Black Community in Memphis, Tennessee, 1890-1980_ can be purchased via Amazon.com.

Alumnus Named as H.F. McCarty Family Endowed Chair and Special Assistant to the Vice President for Academic Affairs

Rust College welcomes Dr. James Bell as H.F. McCarty Family Endowed Chair and Special Assistant to the Vice President for Academic Affairs. Dr. Bell, a 1964 graduate of Rust College, will serve as the H.F. McCarty Family Endowed Chair in Business, as well as the Special Assistant to the Vice President for Academic Affairs for Program Development. Dr. Bell earned a degree from Rust College in Social Science and Economics. He moved forward to graduate studies at Atlanta University in Economics, and to additional graduate studies at Georgia State University in Public Administration. Dr. Bell used these graduate level courses as foundation for a Ph.D. from Michigan State University. His most recent work assignment was Professor and Department Chair, Business Administration Department, Harris-Stowe State College, St. Louis, Missouri.

The H.F. McCarty Family Chair is a symbol of honor. It is the story of four children, Marsha, Katherine, Patti, and John, and their love and appreciation of their parents, Mary Ann and H.F. McCarty. It is the story of a family’s love of the United Methodist Church and higher education. It has been proven that the McCarty Family lives the Methodist philosophy to “give as much as you can.”

New Employee, Assistant Librarian Publishes Two Books

Dr. Renee Hooper has joined the Rust family as the assistant librarian at the Leontyne Price Library. Prior to working at Rust College, she has worked many years in the K-12 public school system in the positions of educator, librarian, and mentor. In addition, Dr. Hooper recently published a book entitled _Role Conflict Experienced by Teachers and It's Relationship to Stress and Burnout_ and a Professional Development Plan entitled _Strategies for Success: Solutions for Teachers_. Dr. Hooper recently earned a Doctorate of Education in Higher Education and Adult Learning from Walden University in Minneapolis, Minnesota (June 2013).

Dr. Hooper is a wife and a proud mother of three. Both of her books can be purchased at Lulu.com.
Rust College Bus Undergoes Transformation for Movie Production

Residents of Holly Springs/ Marshall County were able to see a blast from the past during the summer of 2013. The famous Rust College bus received a transformation to look like the Greyhound buses of old. The transformation was part of the production of “Quarry”, a television drama about a Marine sniper who returns home from Vietnam in 1973, only to find himself being shunned by those he loves and demonized by the public. The movie is scheduled for release in 2014.

Alumnus’ Publications on Display at Leontyne Price Library

Dr. Leroy Frazier (Dr. Nana Kwame Adebowale Bessanta Makota Leroy Frazier), ’74, has published eleven books since 2010. His books will be on display in the Leontyne Price Library at Rust College during the months of October and November 2013. After that time, they will become a permanent part of the Library collections.

The titles of the books are as follows: (1) Journey into my Soul; (2) Converting Thoughts and Words into Things and Advancements; (3) Branded with African Blood; (4) Mississippi beneath the Surface; (5) Co-Creating my Better Life Now; (6) Nana Kwame Speaks; (7) Meet the Fraziers; (8) Experiencing the Infinite; (9) Total Healing, Part 1, Foundations of Healing; (10) Total Healing, Part 2, Practical Applications of Healing; and (11) Total Healing, Part 3, Spiritual and Natural Healing.

Rust Welcomes New Faculty to Political Science Department

Mr. Tracey L. Monroe has joined the Rust College faculty as an instructor of Political Science, as part of the Division of Social Science.

He completed his coursework for a Ph.D. in Political Science from Clark Atlanta University in May 2007, following a Master of Science in Criminal Justice from Albany State University (2003) and a Bachelor of Science in Criminology from Saint Leo University (2000). He also has an Associate of Science degree in Police Science from Northern Virginia Community College (1987).

Monroe has worked as an adjunct instructor in the School of Humanities at Stevenson University, teaching Criminology, Domestic Security and American Government. He has also served as an Assistant Professor at the University of Arkansas-Fort Smith. His other teaching experiences include: Lecturer of Political Science and Criminal Justice at Clayton University, Adjunct Professor at Morehouse College, and Assistant Professor at Albany State University.

He has given more than a decade of service to the United States through the U.S. Army, including tours of duty in Darmstadt, West Germany, South Korea, and Saudi Arabia (Operation Desert Storm).

In 2011, he published The American Mirage: A Historical Analysis of Police Brutality in America (Valle’ Publishing).

Mr. Brandon Hayes, ’12, September 24, 2013; St. Pauls, North Carolina

May the Lord bless and keep you. May the Lord make His face to shine upon you and be gracious unto you. May the Lord lift His countenance upon you and give you Peace.
Dr. David L. Beckley, the longest tenured senior college President in Mississippi, was appointed president of Rust College in Holly Springs, Mississippi on January 16, 1993 and assumed the position on July 1, 1993. Before assuming the position as 11th president of Rust College, he served as 12th president of Wiley College in Marshall, TX (1987-1993). Under his leadership at Wiley College, the College improved its management, retired outstanding building bonds and federal loans, and renovated campus facilities. In addition, the endowment fund increased, accumulated fund deficits of $1.5 million were retired, and the percentage of terminal faculty degrees increased from 42 percent in 1987 to more than 50 percent in 1992.

Since returning to Mississippi, he has been elected Chair of the Mississippi Association of Independent Colleges, President of the Mississippi Association of Colleges, member of NCAA Division III Presidents Council, President of the National Association of Schools and Colleges of the United Methodist Church (NASCUMC), Chair of the Member Presidents of the United Negro College Fund (UNCF) 2000-02, Board of Directors of the Methodist Health Systems, Inc., Memphis, Tennessee, and the University Senate of the United Methodist Church where he chaired the Black College Council, SERVE Board, Yocona Area Council Boy Scouts of America, Methodist LeBonheur Healthcare Foundation (1999-2000), Black Methodists for Church Renewal, United Methodist Senior Services of Mississippi, Inc. (1999-2008), the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, the CREATE Board, the Mississippi Institute of Arts and Letters, Mississippi Access for Justice Commission, Mississippi Civil Rights Museum Commission, and Batesville Job Corp Board of Directors. He is a member of Asbury United Methodist Church, Phi Delta Kappa Educational Fraternity, Alpha Phi Omega National Service Fraternity, Sigma Pi Phi Professional Men’s Fraternity, Omega Psi Phi National Fraternity, Inc., and a 33° Mason.

A 1967 graduate of Rust College, Dr. Beckley became the third alumnus to serve his alma mater as president. In addition to the Rust College Bachelor’s Degree, Beckley holds both the M.Ed. and Ph.D. degrees in Higher Education Administration from the University of Mississippi.

Among his recent awards are the Silver Beaver Award, Boy Scouts of America; Outstanding Education Alumni Award, University of Mississippi; Outstanding Alumni Achievement Award, National Association for Equal Opportunity in Higher Education; Citizen of the Year, Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc.; Service Award, NCAA (National Collegiate Athletic Association); 2010 Man of Excellence Award presented by the Tri-State Defender Newspaper of Memphis, TN, and President of the Year, National Association of African American Honors Programs.

He and his wife, the former Gemma Doulgas, have two daughters, Jacqueline B. Lampley, a public school teacher in Birmingham, Alabama, and Lisa B. Roberts, an associate professor at Tallahassee Community College and operator of a music school specializing in Harp; one granddaughter, Christian Samone Lampley; and a grandson, David A. Roberts.

Dr. Beckley, WE SALUTE YOU! By your fruits, you are known.
A warm welcome home...

Rust College assists in planning of Annual UNCF Conference

Rust College is one of four area colleges and universities who is serving on the planning committee for the UNCF 68th National Alumni Council/56th National Pre-Alumni Council Annual Leadership Conference. The conference will be held in Memphis, Tennessee, February 12-16, 2014.

This exciting four-day leadership conference provides interactive and energizing workshops exploring the best and most promising practices relevant to HBCUs. Highlights include the Alumni Hall of Honor, leadership luncheon, corporate luncheon, the UNCF Legacy Gala, vendors’ market, Miss UNCF Coronation, Career Readiness Day and much more!

ALUMNI, WE NEED YOU! The conference has averaged between 500 and 600 attendees each year for the past five years. However, we need a bigger alumni presence! The planning committee has set a goal of having at least 250 alumni in attendance.

The conference will be held at the Memphis Marriott and Cook Convention Center in downtown Memphis: 250 North Main Street, Memphis, TN 38103.

The 2014 UNCF Leadership Conference is the perfect opportunity to get acquainted with key decision makers and engage students who are on the path to leadership. Your involvement in this conference is an opportunity to demonstrate a commitment to education now and in the future.
