

RUST COLLEGE SGA PRESIDENT 2010-11 BRAQUE TALLEY

Braque Talley, a native of Starkville, Miss., has been a student leader since first arriving on the historic campus of Rust College. Braque has served his peers as the president of his freshman, sophomore and junior classes. Furthermore, he has been active in the president's leaders' forum, pre-alumni club, UMSM (United Methodist Student Movement), UNCF (United Negro College Fund), and the NAACP (National Association for the Advancement of Colored People). Additionally, he has worked as an ambassador to the Black College Fund since his freshman year.

He is a member of Boyd Chapel United Methodist Church, Sigma Tau Delta-National English Honor Society, Alpha Kappa Mu-International Honor Society, and Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc.

As a result of his hard work and commitment to excellence, Braque has been honored by a number of organizations. One of his greatest accomplishments is being named as a member of the "Top 40, Under 40" for Oktibbeha county, Miss.

After graduating from Rust with honors and a degree in English/Liberal Arts, Braque plans to attend law school.
