

Spring 2021 Course Master Schedule

Instructional Methods

Lecture: This is the traditional, in-person delivery of courses, using social distancing measures in our classrooms.

Hybrid: These courses offer a combination of in-person and remote learning experiences. Hybrid courses will include regular and pre-scheduled face-to-face engagement. Some courses and classroom assignments may permit each student to attend class in-person at least once each week within social distancing constraints.

Remote: Some courses will be offered with fully remote delivery, at the announced and scheduled class time (synchronously). Courses may be offered remotely due to instructors' approved Covid-19 accommodations or where pedagogical needs or space constraints dictate.
