Congratulations to Keaturah Wright, Terrence Brown, and Kyyla Richardson on being selected to participate in the Memphis Grizzlies' Stronger Together Memphis Program! The program is designed for people of color and provides education and employment opportunities through sports, mentorship and HBCU engagement.

Throughout the duration of the program, Wright, Brown and Richardson can expect to have meaningful conversations with similar college students, build their resume and professional workplace skills, all while serving as a mentor to participating high school juniors and seniors who attend Booker T. Washington High School in Memphis, TN.
CONGRATULATIONS to the winners of the Ida B. Wells Essay Contest!

DID YOU KNOW...

In March 1967, Ms. Leontyne Price sang at a benefit concert for Rust College at the Mississippi Coliseum in Jackson, which netted the college $34,000. From this beginning, Rust College became another campus with a new library that occupies a central point on the campus. The award-winning building was dedicated on December 14, 1969, in honor of this famous Metropolitan Opera singer, the Leontyne Price Library.
